Irigoyen earlier this month.

"A woman was brutally stabbed — killing her and the unborn child," Brown said in the statement. "The defendant is alleged to have shown no mercy and no regard for human life when he repeatedly and purposely plunged a knife into this expectant mother's abdomen, torso and neck."

But a DA spokesperson later revised the charges, noting that the abortion charge "was repealed by the Legislature, and this is the law as it exists today."

Authorities believe Hobson was directly targeting the baby because he didn't want to be a father.

Democrat Governor Andrew Cuomo signed the "Reproductive Health Act" into law — to a chorus of applause on the 40th anniversary of Roe v. Wade — legalizing abortion up to the moment of a full-term delivery.

Additionally, the updated legislation removes the state fetal homicide law from the criminal code.

"As I said in my floor speech, being assaulted (or in this case murdered) and losing your baby is not 'a woman's choice,'" said Republican New York Assemblywoman Nicole Malliotakis.
